

<http://www.iter.org/jobs>

Location: Cadarache|France

Diagnostic Physicist Closing Date: 30/06/2010

To be responsible for the design, supporting research and development and ultimate implementation of diagnostic systems on ITER such as Polarimetry, interferometry, active spectroscopy, Thomson scattering; To work with the ITER Parties in the specification and realisation of various systems.

(University degree in Experimental Physics, ~5 years of experience)

Cooling Water System Officer Closing Date: 30/06/2010

To work with the cooling water section leader and the technical responsible officer in the task of monitoring the design and procurement of the ITER cooling water systems (performed by others), providing technical direction, required input data, resolution of technical, scope, and cost/schedule conflicts, and ensuring that system components meet Project requirements and are delivered on time.

(Bachelor or higher degree, ~5 year of experience)

Magnet Technology Specialist Closing Date: 30/06/2010

Working under the supervision of a professional engineer, to assist in monitoring magnet procurement within the Domestic Agencies;

To assist in assessing quality control documents, change and non-conformity requests;

To prepare technical documentation to support the procurement activities

(Post-Secondary or Bachelor degree, ~5 year of experience)