

http://fusionforenergy.europa.eu/7_open_job_opportunities.htm

Location: Barcelona|Spain

Technical Assistant for in-Vessel Components Closing Date: 09/07/2010

- Contribute to the preparation of detailed technical specifications and quality control documents for the procurement of In-Vessel components for ITER;
- Review and check the quality assurance documentation prepared by the suppliers;
- Contribute to the preparation of the quality assurance documentation specified in ITER Procurement Arrangements;
- Follow-up supply contracts for the manufacture, assembly, installation and testing of In-Vessel components with regular visits at the suppliers premises;

(post-secondary education attested by a diploma and 3 years professional experience)

Technical Officer for In-Vessel Components Closing Date: 02/07/2010

- Prepare detailed technical specifications and quality control documents for the procurement of In-Vessel components for ITER;
- Define and follow-up thermal mechanical and thermal hydraulic analyses to be performed under F4E contracts for the design of In-Vessel components;
- Define and coordinate design and R&D activities to be carried out in support of the European contribution to the procurement of In-Vessel components for ITER;
- Follow up the supply contracts for the manufacture, assembly, installation and testing of In-Vessel components with regular visits at the supplier(s) premises;

(University degree, at least 3 years of proven professional experience)

Technical Officer for Materials Development and Joining Technologies

Closing Date: 09/07/2010

- Draft detailed technical specifications and quality control documents for the call-for-tender procedures in the areas mentioned above;
- Manage call-for-tender processes;
- Participate in the follow-up of contracts by tracking the progress of activities against the agreed schedule (cost, time and quality), to provide regular and accurate reports, analyses and evaluation of results and to propose mitigation measures if needed;
- Assist the Materials Development Group Leader in the follow-up of previously launched activities;

(University degree in mechanical engineering, material science, physics or equivalent;
3 years of proven professional experience)

Procurement Officer Closing Date: 09/07/2010

- Implement F4E procurement policies in relation with F4E legal framework and Work Programme, ensuring the compliance with applicable regulations for public procurements;
- Be responsible for operational and/or administrative procurements, mostly in fulfilment of F4E/EURATOM obligations with respect to the ITER and Broader Approach agreements;
- Establish the procurement strategy in collaboration with F4E technical officers, by carrying out risk analysis, market survey, financial analysis of the related Procurement Arrangements;
- Implement the resulting commercial procurement or grant actions, by providing appropriate translation of technical needs into contractual, economic, business and financial aspects vis a vis industry and research contractors;

(University studies of at least 3 years, 3 years professional experience)